

SPEND A CULTURAL DAY WITH US:
JOIN THE TEMPLE JUDEA MUSEUM, KI ARCHIVES AND THE MEYERS
LIBRARY SUNDAY JANUARY 22ND, 2012 FOR TWO WONDERFUL
PROGRAMS

1. How Do We Preserve Memory?

The Art of the Personal Memoir

10:30 – 11:00 am: Bagels and coffee,

Program at 11:00am promptly

Join fellow KI members as we take a multidisciplinary journey into our collective past.

Lynn Rosen, Chair of the Meyers Library and Director of Graduate Publishing Programs at Rosemont College will talk about the memoir as a literary genre. KI Archives committee members will speak about some of the many KI memories that are preserved in our nearly 200 year old archives. Congregational volunteers will read selections from memoirs in the Meyers Library Collection. The program will end with everyone participating in a brief memoir writing exercise.

2. The SOUNDworks Project: (DATE CHANGE FROM NOV. 20, 2011)

Readings, Musings and Memories by SOUNDworks Narrators

Curator Marlene Adler, with the help of Norman Olson

FRIENDS' OF THE TEMPLE JUDEA MUSEUM EVENT

Brunch at 12:15pm (details below – RESERVATION REQUIRED)
