

The Meyers Library of Reform Congregation Keneseth Israel of Elkins Park

Invites you to a visit with author Pam Jenoff ~

THE WOMAN WITH THE BLUE STAR

Thursday, October 21 at 7:00 p.m. on Zoom

Pam Jenoff is the author of several books of historical fiction, including the bestsellers The Orphan's Tale and The Lost Girls of Paris, both of which spent multiple weeks on the New York Times and USA Today bestseller lists, among others. She holds a degree in international affairs from George Washington University and a degree in history from Cambridge, and she received her JD from UPenn. Her novels are inspired by her experiences working at the Pentagon and as a diplomat for the State Department handling Holocaust issues in Poland. She lives with her husband and 3 children near Philadelphia, where she teaches law.

"Jenoff brings serious girl power to this story of brave women and the war." – COSMOPOLITAN

The best way to support wonderful authors is to purchase their books. And a good way to purchase books is to also support local, independent booksellers such as the Open Book Bookstore in Elkins Park. You can Shop In-Store or Shop Online:

<https://openbookphilly.com/browse-books/>

Library Director Emerita, Ellen Tilman will introduce and interview Pam.

You don't want to miss this program!

Please RSVP using this link if you plan to attend.

The Zoom link will ONLY be sent to those who have registered.

Questions? (215) 887-8700 or library@kenesethisrael.org