Executive Director Emeritus William Ferstenfeld, F.T.A. Dear Prospective Member,

We are thrilled that you are thinking of joining Kl!

By joining, you will be inspired and enriched as a part of our warm community. We know that you will be able to feel the modern excitement we bring to our historical tradition, and we are confident that we will succeed in our mission to provide an individualized, personal relationship with the Jewish faith. This packet provides a narrative about the wide range of programming that we offer, but ultimately we are about the people that are a part of Kl. We create meaningful connections through study, prayer and engagement opportunities.

As commanded in the Torah, and inscribed on the front of our building, "Thou Shalt Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself." This is the essence of Kl, and it permeates in everything we do. We have countless social action and social justice initiatives based on this principle. It also means we treat all people equally. This is our mission: Keneseth Israel welcomes the full participation of all who seek community with us. In accordance with our values we do not discriminate against any person or group of persons on the basis of religion, age, various capabilities, ethnicity, socio-economic status, gender identity or expression, marital or familial status and citizenship. Furthermore, we embrace the full participation of Jews of all backgrounds including multi-faith and interfaith people and families, Jews by choice, single parents, and LGBTQ+ individuals and families. Keneseth Israel is proud of the diversity of its congregation.

We are very interested in talking with you about becoming a part of the Kl family. Please call the office at (215) 887-8700, or email brissinger@kenesethisrael.org or jshmelzer@kenesethisrael.org if you are interested in setting up a tour, or if you have questions.

Welcome to Kl!

Educational and Community Groups

ADULT EDUCATION – From special sermon series to weekly Torah study and discussion groups, KI is a synagogue of intellectual exploration. Our high quality Adult Education program is comprised of over 70 sessions annually.

ISRAEL – The Israel Committee, focused on developing support for Israel in our congregation, involves our synagogue in Pro-Israel community events and connects us to national efforts on behalf of the Jewish State.

WOMEN OF KI/SISTERHOOD – Coming together to serve KI, the women of Sisterhood support our schools and youth groups, host Interfaith programs, run the KI Mitzvah garden and operate the KI Gift Shop and Gallery.

MEYERS LIBRARY – Offering the latest fiction books, a rich collection of the Judaica titles for adults and children, and author events and book reviews, Meyers library is accredited by the Association of Jewish Libraries.

SOCIAL ACTION – One of KI's seven core values is Tikkun Olam, repairing the world. We focus on social justice through programs both within KI and extending them into the broader community, concentrating on food insecurity and education through a variety of community-based, hands-on efforts.

One of the best parts of KI is its commitment to first-rate Arts and Cultural Events. No where else can you find a synagogue with a museum and sacred and secular music programs of such talent and quality, all right in Elkins Park.

ברוד אונה

SACRED MUSIC PROGRAM – Under the guidance of our Cantor, sacred music is designed to enhance the religious experience at KI. At the core of worship, our music is respectful of tradition and, at the same time, participatory and heartwarming. Our congregants meet regularly, enhancing our communal worship through adult and children's choirs.

MUSIC ARTS PROGRAM – The Music Arts committee is committed to presenting world-class talent in musical performances that enhance the appreciation of music of all kinds, and that bring the joy of music to our synagogue. Music Arts sponsors several major concerts every year.

THE TEMPLE JUDEA MUSEUM AT KI – KI is one of only a few synagogues in this country with a museum. The Temple Judea Museum is led by director/curator Rita Poley. An active, original exhibition schedule showcases both historic and contemporary collections drawn from the more than 4,000 treasured objects in the museum's permanent collection, as well as from exceptional loaned works. The museum's Artists' Collaborative, the new Temple Judea Memorial Judaica showcase, and the pre-school Arts Alive Gallery are all essential parts of the museum experience.

One of the benefits of membership at KI is the use of our facilities and clergy at life cycle events. Friday night services start at 8:00 PM (7:00 PM third Friday of each month). Weekly Saturday morning Torah study begins at 9:00 AM in the Meyers Library. Worship is at 10:30 AM and is either a Bar/Bat Mitzvah service or a synagogue Minyan.

Life cycle events and services include

RECEIVING A JEWISH NAME/BABY BLESSINGS – Welcome your child into the Judaic tradition by choosing a Hebrew name. Ceremonies can be conducted in your home, at the synagogue, or at another location.

וקיימנו והגענו לזמו הזה

B'NAI MITZVAH – We recognize the importance of Bar & Bat Mitzvah as a major family event; we work with each family to create a unique and memorable service.

CONFIRMATION – Our students enjoy continuing their Jewish education through 10th grade, when they are confirmed.

CONVERSION – Our clergy are eager to meet with individuals who are considering becoming members of the Jewish faith.

WEDDINGS – KI is the perfect space for a couple to celebrate their commitment to each other and the Jewish faith. Our clergy provide premarital counseling as well as an individual approach to a traditional Jewish wedding both in or out of the synagogue.

HOSPITAL VISITS AND PASTORAL CARE – From broken limbs to broken hearts, KI clergy and the Caring Community organization regularly reach out to members in need. Our cantor supervises all pastoral care including spiritual counseling, visits to the sick, and meals or phone calls to those in need.

FUNERALS, SHIVA SERVICES AND UNVEILINGS – At those moments when you need us most, we are here for you. KI clergy help you honor the memory of your loved one while trained lay leaders represent our community to lead shiva services.

WHY DOES IT COST SO MUCH TO BELONG TO A SYNAGOGUE?

KI has an annual budget of $2,866,226 devoted to the preschool, religious school, building and maintenance, administration, Union for Reform Judaism dues, and compensation for staff. We work hard to minimize our costs without diminishing the services we provide. Still we spend $3,372 annually per household and $1,566 annual per student in our religious school and rely on our members generosity to support our budget.

For over fifty years, Keneseth Israel's preschool and infant center have been preparing toddlers for Kindergarten and beyond. Our wonderful community not only instills a love of learning from an early age, but also good values, from Tikkum Olam (Reparing the World) to Chesed (Loving Kindness), which filter from school into adulthood.

Richard E. Rudolph Jr. Preschool

The Richard E. Rudolph, Jr., Preschool is a synagogue-based program which was named in memory of the son of its original benefactor. We are committed to providing quality early childhood education, both Judaic and secular. Our mission is to promote self esteem while enhancing emotional, social and cognitive development in a safe, fun, nurturing and respectful environment. In addition, an important role of the preschool is to facilitate a close and supportive community of families, teachers and Rabbinic staff as we embrace Jewish traditions and values.

The PA State licensed Richard E. Rudolph Jr. Preschool provides care from infants to pre-K aged children. Our inclusive teaching style is hands-on, child-centered, and experiential. Our qualified teaching staff understands the importance of meeting the PA Learning Standards, but also recognizes that each child has an individual learning style with varied interests. We ensure that each child feels loved, confident and safe while in a class that is stimulating and developmentally appropriate.

The Richard E. Rudolph Jr. Preschool and Infant Center is the only facility in the area with an outdoor learning classroom and a natural Playscape that is accessible year round, regardless of weather. On a weekly basis, children learn through play, music, cooking, reading, drama and much more.

We are currently a Keystone Stars 3 school which means we participate in this state initiative of the Office of Child Development and Early Learning (OCDEL) to improve, support, and recognize the continuous quality improvement efforts of early learning programs in Pennsylvania. Our Center is licensed by the Department of Public Welfare.

In recognition of the financial support our preschool families give to the synagogue we are delighted to offer Richard E. Rudolf Jr. preschool families free membership until their oldest child reaches third grade.
