

Sacred Music at KI

A vibrant legacy of beautiful, artistic Jewish music—rooted in tradition and open to all.

At KI, music is not just a part of worship—it's the soul of our community. Sacred music brings us closer to one another and to our heritage. We are blessed at KI to have the King David Harp Society which promotes the legacy of Jewish music. It's my joy and honor to lead our program which blends tradition and creativity, includes volunteers and professionals, and that offers something for every voice and every age. I invite you to explore our programs and find your place in the song. May you feel the strength and spirit of prayer, worship, and Jewish music!

—Cantor Amy E. Levy
